Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of July 29 requesting that portions of the enclosed documents be reviewed by the Department of Defense under the Freedom of Information Act.

As you recall, the Department of State determined that some sections of the documents in question required review by both CIA and the Department of Defense. Defense has completed the review of pertinent portions of the documents and has no objection to the release of the portions that required their review, less the bracketed portion on page 259 which requires CIA review prior to release.
